Introduction

The Three Counties Branch of the Home Grown Timber Marketing Association was founded in 1935; Western Woodland Owners Ltd was constituted 1st July 1950 to take over operation of the Three Counties Branch, drawing its membership from the counties of Gloucestershire, Herefordshire, Worcestershire, Shropshire and Oxfordshire. The society's aim was to assist members in the measurement, valuation and sale of timber and other woodland products and with planting, management and marketing; and to promote and protect the interests of woodland owners and producers.
