

Historic Farm Buildings Group
SR 2HFBG

The Historic Farm Buildings Group was founded in 1985 and is concerned with the past, present and future of historic farm buildings. It recognises their importance as evidence for past farming systems and technologies, the development of agricultural and constructional practices, and more generally for the life and work of our ancestors, peasant and monk, landowner and farmer, craftsmen and surveyor, engineer and architect.

SR HFBG A Administrative Records
SR HFBG B Publications

SR 2HFBG A	ADMINISTRATIVE RECORDS	1990-c.2005
SR 2HFBG A/1	Correspondence	2004-c.2005
SR 2HFBG A/1/1	Folder of relating to onion drying barns in Bedfordshire	2004
	Consists of email correspondence and photographs (1 folder)
SR 2HFBG A/1/2	Rural Pathfinder Summary Project Application form (1 doc)	c. 2005
SR 2HFBG A/2	Conference	1990-2004
SR 2HFBG A/2/1	Conference proceedings of a one day conference Old Farm Buildings in a New Countryside organised by the Historic Farm Buildings Group (1 doc)	1990
SR 2HFBG A/2/2	Conference programme relating to RURALIA and Historic Farm Buildings Group conference, Italy (1 doc)	2004

SR 2HFBG B	PUBLICATIONS	2001-2005
SR 2HFBG B/1	Threatened Historic Buildings in Hampshire, Hampshire County Council (1 doc)	2001
SR 2HFBG B/2	Newspaper cutting entitled Brush up on Barns from NFU Countryside (1 doc)	2003
SR 2HFBG B/3	Booklet entitled Granaries in Surrey – An Obituary by Joan M Harding (1 doc)	2004
SR 2HFBG B/4	News article from the Daily Telegraph news website entitled Bad barn conversions ‘a rural cancer’ (1 doc)	2005