

Royal Agricultural Benevolent Institution
SR 2RABI

The Royal Agricultural Benevolent Institution (RABI) was founded in 1860 by Alderman John Joseph Mechi as a farming charity to relieve the poverty and hardship suffered by farming families in England, Wales and Northern Ireland as they were forced out of farming through misfortune, age or sickness.

From: The Royal Agricultural Benevolent Institution, About Us: History, <http://www.rabi.org.uk/history.shtml>, accessed 08/07/04

SR 2RABI AC	ACCOUNTS	1965-1966
SR 2RABI AC6	Other accounts	1965-1966
SR 2RABI AD6/1	Folder entitled financial forecasts for 1965-1966 (1 folder)	1965-1966
SR 2RABI AD	ADMINISTRATIVE AND COMMERCIAL RECORDS	1986-1994
SR 2RABI AD2	Annual Reports	1986-1994
SR 2RABI AD2/1	Annual report and accounts of the Royal Agricultural Benevolent Institution (1 doc)	1986
SR 2RABI AD2/2	Annual report and accounts of the Royal Agricultural Benevolent Institution (1 doc)	1990
SR 2RABI AD2/3	Annual report and accounts of the Royal Agricultural Benevolent Institution (1 doc)	1991
SR 2RABI AD2/4	Annual report and accounts of the Royal Agricultural Benevolent Institution (1 doc)	1992
SR 2RABI AD2/5	Annual report and accounts of the Royal Agricultural Benevolent Institution (1 doc)	1994

SR 2RABI P2/A	Individual Advertising and Servicing Publications	1980's
SR 2RABI P2/A1	Leaflet entitled Fighting hardship in the farming community Issued by the Royal Agricultural Benevolent Society (1 doc)	1980's
SR 2RABI P2/A2	Leaflet entitled Help us carry the load Issued by the Royal Agricultural Benevolent Society (1 doc)	1980's